

I endorse this proposal. I would like to see the CW requirement remain for Amateur Radio licensing, because I feel that it's a vital mode for use in emergency communication. I also feel that making the CW test anything less than 13wpm for the Extra Class license makes it too easy to get. I feel that getting to the Extra should be an accomplishment and not something just given to you.